Community Support Team Training

Training Location

NC Council Royal Conference Center
3801 Hillsborough Street
Raleigh, NC 27607

March 30, 2010

Many Community Support providers who serve adults are adding “Community support team” to their agency’s service array. This one-day training explains the service definition and teaches clinical and administrative practices to help effectively organize and deliver this service.

Participants will learn how to:

- interpret and apply the specific service definition in their community
- identify who needs to be “on the team”
- effectively organize the administrative structure for this service
- apply the practices of recovery in a CS Team setting.

Target Audience

Administrative staff, clinical staff, and direct service providers.

Faculty: Danielle Coleman, LCSW
